- (iii) There is no reorganisation of the share capital of the Transferee Company since 100% (one hundred percent) share capital of the Transferor Company is held by the Transferee Company and its nominees and because equity shareholders of the Transferee Company are nothing but the shareholders of the Transferor Company;
- (iv) Further, the Scheme shall not result in any reorganisation or change in the shareholding of the Transferee Company;
- (v) The rights of the Creditors of the Transferee Company are also not affected since there will be no reduction in their claims and the assets of the Transferee Company, post amalgamation, will be more than sufficient to discharge their claims.
- (vi) No undertaking of the Transferor Companies is being parted away or being disposed-off and hence provisions of Section 180 of the Companies Act, 2013 are also not applicable.

13. It is respectfully submitted that the Hon'ble High Court of Judicature at Bombay in the case of Mahaamba Investments Limited V/s. IDI Limited (2001) 105 Company Cases page 16 to 18 inter alia observed and held that if the Scheme of Amalgamation provides for no issue of equity shares to the members of the transferor company, being a wholly owned subsidiary of the transferee company and the creditors of the transferee company, are not likely to be affected by the scheme, a separate Petition by the transferee company was not necessary.
